1. Locked-In Funds

This agreement applies only to funds originating from a Pension Plan(s) to which You or Your former Spouse belonged (including all earnings on those funds) and which are transferred to this LIRA, (the “Locked-In Funds”).

2. Restrictions on Transfers Out

a) Locked-In Funds may not be transferred out during Your lifetime, except:

- i) before the end of the year in which You reach age 71 (or such other age as the Tax Act may prescribe from time to time), to be transferred to the pension fund of a Pension Plan in which You are a member or the pension fund of a Pension Plan established by a provincial or federal statute and in which You are a member.
- ii) before the end of the year in which You reach age 71 (or such other age as the Tax Act may prescribe from time to time), to be transferred to another LIRA You own, or to Your LIF (a LIF is an arrangement which meets the Pension Regulations' requirements for a “life income fund” and which has also been registered as a registered retirement income fund under the Tax Act).

Locked-In Retirement Account Amending Agreement – Nova Scotia Pension Legislation

- iii) before the end of the year in which You reach age 71 (or such other age as the Tax Act may prescribe from time to time), to purchase an immediate or deferred life annuity that meets the requirements of a “life annuity” under the Pension Regulations and the Tax Act. Such annuity cannot commence on a date which is more than 10 years before the earliest date on which You:
 - A. are entitled to receive a Pension Benefit under the Pension Act as a result of termination of employment or membership in any Pension Plan from which the Locked-In Funds originated; and
 - B. are entitled to receive a Pension Benefit under such Pension Plan as a result of termination of employment or Pension Plan membership. A deferred life annuity may only be purchased if this LIRA is closed.
- iv) Before the end of the year in which You reach age 71 (or such age as the Tax Act may prescribe from time to time), to be transferred to a Pooled Registered Pension Plan.
- v) if an amount is required to be paid to You to reduce the amount of tax which is otherwise payable under Part X.1 of the Tax Act.
- vi) as may be otherwise permitted by the Pension Act and Pension Regulations from time to time.
- b) Requirements Before Withdrawal: Before the We can permit You to transfer out Locked-In Funds as referred to in paragraph 2(a), the proposed transferee institution must agree to administer the amount transferred as required by the Pension Act and the Pension Regulations. You must provide Us, as its agent, with the name and address of the proposed transferee in order for Us to request the transferee's agreement to this requirement, and to be able to make the transfer. We will advise the subsequent transferee in writing that the amount transferred must be administered as a pension or deferred pension under the Pension Act and the Pension Regulations and the Tax Act.

The date of a transfer under 2(a) must not be later than 30 days after You request it, unless (i) We do not have all the information necessary to complete the transaction, in which case the 30-day period begins to run from the date We have all the necessary information; or (ii) the transfer is in respect of assets held as securities whose term of investment extends beyond the 30-day period. If assets in this LIRA consist of identifiable and transferable securities, We may transfer securities with Your consent.
- c) If assets in this LIRA consist of identifiable and transferable securities, We may transfer securities with Your consent.
- d) Transfers of Excess Amount into LIRA: If the Excess Amount is transferred, directly or indirectly, into this LIRA You may withdraw money from the LIRA in an amount not greater than the sum of the Excess Amount and any investment earnings since the date of the transfer, including any unrealized capital gains or losses, attributable to the Excess Amount, as calculated by Us, calculated as of the date We pay the withdrawn amount. You must apply to Us in the approved form to withdraw an Excess Amount from the LIRA. We are entitled to rely upon the information provided by You in such an application. An application that meets the requirements of the Pension Regulations constitutes authorization to Us to make the payment from the LIRA in accordance with the Pension Regulations (subject to the Tax Act's requirements). We must make the payment to which You are entitled under this paragraph within 30 days after We receive the completed application form and accompanying documents.

3. Permitted Withdrawals

Locked-In Funds may not be withdrawn, commuted, or surrendered during Your lifetime, except as follows:

- a) Withdrawal Due to Shortened Life Expectancy: Despite paragraph 2(a), the Pension Regulations permit You to withdraw all or part of the Locked-In Funds if You have a mental or physical disability that is likely to shorten considerably Your life expectancy and if the other requirements of the Pension Regulations (including Your completion of a prescribed form) are met.
- b) Withdrawal due to Non-Residency: You may, upon application to the Issuer in accordance with the Pension Rules, withdraw all or part of the Locked-In Funds if, when You sign the application for withdrawal, You have ceased to be a resident of Canada for at least the two immediately previous calendar years. For the purpose of determining residency for this section, You are deemed to be a resident of Canada in a calendar year if You reside in Canada for 183 days or more of that calendar year. The withdrawal application package given to the Issuer must:
 - i) include the form prescribed by the Pension Regulations signed by You; and
 - ii) be accompanied by:
 - A. a written declaration signed by You that You have not been a resident of Canada for at least the two immediately previous calendar years;
 - B. if You are a Pension Plan Member, a Declaration About a Spouse;
 - C. if You are a Non-Pension Plan Member, a statement attesting that none of the money in this LIRA is derived, directly or indirectly, from a pension benefit provide in respect of Your employment.
- c) Withdrawal of Small Amounts: You may, upon application in accordance with the Pension Regulations, withdraw all of the Locked-In Funds if, at the time You sign the application:

Locked-In Retirement Account Amending Agreement – Nova Scotia Pension Legislation

- i) You are at least 55 years of age; and
- ii) the value of all assets in all of Your LIRAs and LIFs, and in all Pension Plans in which You are a member and which provide defined contributions benefits is less than 50% of the Year's Maximum Pensionable Earnings for the Year in which Your application is made.

An application to withdraw the Locked-In Funds on this basis must be in the form prescribed by the Pension Regulations, signed by You, and given to Us. The value of all assets in all of Your LIRAs and LIFs and in all Pension Plans in which You are a member and which provide defined contribution benefits at the time You sign the application will be determined in accordance with the most recent statement about each LIRA or LIF given to You; each statement must be dated within one year before You sign the application.

- d) Further: The application that is required to be given to Us under paragraph 3 (a) or (c) above and that must be signed by You is void if it is signed more than 60 days before We receive it. If We receive a valid application, We must give You a receipt for the application stating the date on which it was received. We are entitled to rely upon the information provided by You in such application; an application that meets the requirement of the Pension Regulations constitutes authorization to Us to pay the Locked-In Funds to You in accordance with the Pension Regulations (subject to the Tax Act's requirements). We must make the payment to which You are entitled under this paragraph within 30 days after We receive the completed application form and, as applicable, the accompanying documents.
- e) Financial Hardship: You may, upon application in accordance with the Pension Rules, withdraw the Locked-In Funds under the following circumstances of financial hardship. Unless noted otherwise, only 1 application in each circumstance of financial hardship may be made during any calendar year in relation to a particular person, however, an application that does not result in a withdrawal does not count for these purposes. The withdrawal application package must include the form prescribed by the Pension Regulations, signed and dated by You, and by Your Spouse, if applicable, and be submitted to Us accompanied by the supporting documents as described below:
 - i) Mortgage default circumstance: You or Your Spouse have received a written demand in respect of a default on a mortgage debt that is secured against Your principal residence, and You could face eviction or legal action if the debt remains unpaid. The application package must include:
 - A. a copy of the written demand in respect of the default on the mortgage debt secured against Your principal residence, setting out the amount required to pay the mortgage debt in default and all directly related enforcement costs to bring the mortgage into good standing, together with all of the following information or documents:
 - B. a statement of the amount of the regular monthly payments required to be made in relation to the mortgage debt;
 - C. the civic address of Your principal residence.

For the purposes of an application to withdraw under a mortgage default circumstance, You have only one principal residence. An application under a mortgage default circumstance is only permitted if You have not previously made a withdrawal for this reason under any LIRA or LIF and is only permitted once in a lifetime.

- ii) Medical expense circumstance: You, Your Spouse or a dependent has incurred or will incur medical expenses as defined in the Pension Regulations. The application package must include:
 - A. copies of receipts or estimates for the medical expenses;
 - B. a written opinion of a physician or dentist, licensed to practice medicine or dentistry, as the case may be, in the jurisdiction where You reside, indicating that, in their opinion, the medical expenses are necessary to treat an illness or disability;
 - C. a statement signed and dated by You that indicates any coverage that is or may be available to the owner for the medical expenses from insurance or from a benefit plan, government program or other source.

In an application under a medical expense circumstance, the consented amount must not exceed the total of the following amounts:

- an amount sufficient to pay any medical expenses actually incurred within the 12-month period immediately preceding the signing date;
 - an amount sufficient to pay any medical expenses anticipated to be incurred within the 12-month period immediately after the signing date.
- iii) Rental default circumstance: You or Your Spouse have received a written demand in respect of arrears in the payment of rent on Your principal residence, and You could face eviction if the debt remains unpaid. The application package must include a copy of the written demand in respect of the arrears in the payment of rent on Your principal residence, setting out the amount required to pay the rental arrears and all directly related enforcement costs and reinstate the tenancy.

In an application under a rental default circumstance, the net amount may not exceed the amount required to pay the rental arrears and all directly related enforcement costs and reinstate the tenancy.

For the purposes of a rental default circumstance, You have only one principal residence. An application under a rental default circumstance is only permitted if You have not previously made a withdrawal for this reason under any LIRA or LIF and is only permitted once in a lifetime.

Locked-In Retirement Account Amending Agreement – Nova Scotia Pension Legislation

- iv) Reduced income circumstance: Your anticipated total income from all sources before taxes for the 12-month period immediately following the signing date is less than 66 2/3% of the Year's Maximum Pensionable Earnings for the year in which the application is signed. The application package must include:
 - A. a statement signed and dated by You that sets out Your anticipated total income from all sources before taxes for the 12-month period immediately after the signing date;
 - B. copies of any documents showing income expected to be received by You in the 12-month period immediately after the signing date.

The calculation of Your anticipated total income and the consented amount that may be withdrawn must be in accordance with the Pension Regulations.

4. Withdrawal/Payment Upon Your Death

- a) On Your death, Your Spouse, or if there is no Spouse, Your beneficiary or if You do not have a named beneficiary, the personal representative of Your estate, is entitled to the full value of the proceeds of this LIRA, less any amount required to be withheld by the Tax Act. A determination as to whether You have a Spouse must be made as of the date of death. The value of the assets in the LIRA includes all accumulated investment earnings, including any unrealized capital gains and losses, of the LIRA from the date of death until the date of payment.
- b) Your Spouse is not entitled to receive the value of the assets in a LIRA under section 4(a) if You were not:
 - i) a member or former member of a pension plan from which the assets were transferred, directly or indirectly, to purchase the LIRA; or
 - ii) a member of a Pooled Registered Pension Plan from which the assets were transferred, directly or indirectly, to purchase the LIRA.
- c) A Spouse who, as of the date of death, is living separate and apart from You without a reasonable prospect of resuming cohabitation, is not entitled to receive the value of the assets in the LIRA under section 4(a) if any of the following conditions apply:
 - i) The Spouse delivered a written waiver to Us in accordance with the Pension Regulations;
 - ii) The terms of a written agreement respecting the division of the LIRA that was entered into before the date of death disentitle, or do not expressly or impliedly entitle, the Spouse to receive an amount under the LIRA;
 - iii) The terms of a court order issued before the date of death disentitle, or do not expressly or impliedly entitle, the Spouse to receive an amount under the LIRA.
- d) The benefit described in section 4(a) may be transferred to a registered retirement savings arrangement in accordance with the Tax Act.
- e) Your Spouse may waive their entitlement to receive the benefit described in section 4(a) by delivering, any time before the date of death, a written waiver in an approved form to Us. A Spouse who delivers a waiver described in this section may cancel it by delivered a written and signed notice of cancellation to Us before the date of death.

5. Miscellaneous

- a) No Assignment or Commutation: The Locked-In Funds or any portion of them cannot be assigned, charged, anticipated or given as security, except as permitted by the Pension Act, the Pension Regulations, the Pooled Registered Pension Plans Act and the Tax Act. Any transaction purporting to do so is void.

The Locked-In Funds are exempt from execution, seizure or attachment and cannot be commuted or surrendered during Your lifetime, except as permitted by the Pension Act, the Pension Regulations, the Pooled Registered Pension Plans Act and the Tax Act. Locked-In Retirement Account Amending Agreement – Nova Scotia Pension Legislation

Transferring assets from LIRAs

- 2 (1) An owner of a LIRA may transfer all or part of the assets in the LIRA to any of the following:
- (a) the pension fund of a pension plan registered under the pension benefits legislation in any Canadian jurisdiction or to the pension fund of a pension plan provided by a government in Canada;
 - (b) a LIRA held by another financial institution;
 - (c) a LIF;
 - (d) a life annuity;
 - (e) a pooled registered pension plan.
- (2) The date of a transfer under subsection (1) must not be later than 30 days after the owner requests it, unless any of the following apply:
- (a) the financial institution providing the LIRA does not have all the information necessary to complete the transaction, in which case the 30-day period begins to run from the date the financial institution has all the necessary information;
 - (b) the transfer is in respect of assets held as securities whose term of investment extends beyond the 30-day period.
- (3) If assets in a LIRA consist of identifiable and transferable securities, the financial institution providing the LIRA may transfer the securities with the consent of the owner of the LIRA.
- (4) A financial institution providing a LIRA must advise the financial institution to which the assets of the LIRA are transferred
- (a) that the assets were held in a LIRA in the current year; and
 - (b) whether the assets were determined in a manner that differentiated on the basis of sex.

Information to be provided by financial institution on transfers of assets of LIRAs

- 3 If the assets in a LIRA are transferred, the financial institution providing the LIRA must give the owner the information required by Section 4 of this Schedule, determined as of the date of the transfer.

Information to be provided annually by financial institution

- 4 At the beginning of each fiscal year of a LIRA, a financial institution providing the LIRA must provide all of the following information to the owner about their LIRA as of the end of the previous fiscal year:
- (a) with respect to the previous fiscal year,
 - (i) the sums deposited,
 - (ii) any accumulated investment earnings, including any unrealized capital gains or losses,
 - (iii) the payments made out of the LIRA,
 - (iv) any withdrawals from the LIRA,
 - (v) the fees charged against the LIRA;
 - (b) the value of the assets in the LIRA at the beginning of the fiscal year of the LIRA.

- (a) the owner's spouse;
 - (b) if there is no spouse or if the spouse is disentitled under subsection (4) or (5), the owner's named beneficiary;
 - (c) if there is no named beneficiary, the personal representative of the owner's estate.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a determination as to whether an owner of a LIRA has a spouse must be made as of the date the owner dies.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1), the value of the assets in a LIRA includes all accumulated investment earnings, including any unrealized capital gains and losses, of the LIRA from the date of death until the date of payment.
- (4) A spouse is not entitled to receive the value of the assets in a LIRA under clause (1)(a) if the owner of the LIRA was not

Locked-In Retirement Account Amending Agreement – Nova Scotia Pension Legislation

- (a) a member or former member of a pension plan from which the assets were transferred, directly or indirectly, to purchase the LIRA; or
 - (b) a member of a pooled registered pension plan from which the assets were transferred, directly or indirectly, to purchase the LIRA.
- (5) A spouse who, as of the date the owner of a LIRA dies, is living separate and apart from the owner without a reasonable prospect of resuming cohabitation, is not entitled to receive the value of the assets in the LIRA under clause (1)(a) if any of the following conditions apply
- (a) the spouse delivered a written waiver to the financial institution in accordance with Section 6 of this Schedule;
 - (b) the terms of a written agreement respecting the division of the LIRA that was entered into before the date of the owner's death disentitle, or do not expressly or impliedly entitle, the spouse to receive an amount under the LIRA;
 - (c) the terms of a court order issued before the owner's death disentitle, or do not expressly or impliedly entitle, the spouse to receive an amount under the LIRA.
- (6) The benefit described in subsection (1) may be transferred to a registered retirement savings arrangement in accordance with the federal Income Tax Act.

Waiver of entitlement to death benefits by spouse

- 6 (1) A spouse of an owner of a LIRA may waive their entitlement to receive a benefit described in Section 5 of this Schedule from the LIRA, by delivering, any time before the death of the owner, a written waiver in an approved form to the financial institution providing the LIRA.
- (2) A spouse who delivers a waiver under subsection (1) may cancel it by delivering a written and signed notice of cancellation to the financial institution before the date the owner of the LIRA dies.

Information to be provided by financial institution on death of owner

- 7 If the owner of LIRA dies, the financial institution providing the LIRA must give the information required by Section 4 of this Schedule, determined as of the date of the owner's death, to any person who is entitled to receive the assets in the LIRA under subsection 5(1) of this Schedule.
